Steeple Sounds

From The Desk of Rev. Beth

So often we think of praying as all the things we say to God. That is a big part of prayer: unburdening ourselves before God, sharing the events of our lives, the worries of our days, the desires of our hearts. Talking to God is a wonderful and intimate thing to do. It feels so good to pour ourselves out that sometimes we forget that prayer is also about listening.

The UCC's tagline declares that "God is still speaking."

In an article about listening for a Still-speaking God, God's ongoing revelation in the world was explored:

"If you think God's not finished with you yet, guess what?

God's not even finished with God yet. God isn't finished with you, or finished with the church or our world, or even letting us know more about God's own compassion, justice, hope, and truth. If you are open, if you listen carefully, you'll discover what God is saying to this generation at this time in history. There's more good news to be heard!

This understanding of God's "revelation" is a central aspect of United Church of Christ faith.

We believe that God was revealed in the past, but also in the present and the future. In the Bible, God was known through covenants with people and nations, through prophets and teachers, through conflicts and commandments, in visions and songs, and through the followers of Jesus and the church. God acted profoundly in the life and ministry, even in the death, of Christ. On Easter, God declared in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, "I'll never, never stop speaking. Alleluia!" Throughout history, in moments of compassion, justice, and peace, in our worship, sacraments, prayer, seeking, action, and silence, God continues to speak."

It follows then that we must listen. Listening is an important part of our prayer practice. If you find prayer to be a challenge, here are a few suggestions:

1. Find a spot that is reasonably free of distractions- you can find this in nature, in your house, in church, or out in the world.
2. Bring your awareness to the presence of God with you and within you. You may light a candle. You may sing a song. You may pray using words, movement, or a silent opening of yourself to Presence.
3. Turn your heart toward listening. You may ask God to speak to you in ways that you can hear. You may simply quiet your mind and be present to whatever comes up. If you find it hard to sit and listen for a while, don't be alarmed, that's pretty normal! It helps sometimes to set a timer and decide you are going to be in a listening posture for a set amount of time. You can try 5 minutes at a time and see how you do.
4. Finish your time with a prayer of thanksgiving for God's guidance and know that you can go back into daily life with that same intention of listening to God.

We can listen for the voice of God as we read scripture, we can listen for God's voice in our interactions with others, we can listen for God speaking to us through sermons and devotionals, through our friendships, our gardens. All it takes is a heart willing to listen and worship.

May you be open to the still-speaking God within!

Peace,

Rev. Beth

SAVE THE DATE!

We are pleased to announce the date of our 3rd Annual Golf Tournament at Olde Scotland Links! Friday July 28th at 8 AM friends and family of CSCC will tee off. This is one of our two biggest fund raisers we hold. Both the church fall fair and the summer golf tournament raise several hundred dollars to supplement our annual church budget.

In 2015, the tournament brought in $8,850.48. In 2016 it brought in $6,234.84. But why the decrease in 2016? It's all about the the number of players and hole sponsors. We had over 60 players in 2015, but only 40 in 2016. In 2017, we all want to see really big numbers! We want more players, more sponsors, and we want to raise more money.

25% of the money raised will go directly to the Bridgewater Food Pantry.

Let's play golf!

Sermon on the Mount Clif's Notes

On February 12, Rev. Beth read the entire Sermon on the Mount. It is rather long and, in some places, dense but once you waded through the historical context and didactic metaphors, the message is very clear.

- Help everyone, EVERYONE, who needs help.
- Don't judge them.
- Be humble about it.

This is what it looks like to be a follower of Christ. This is what He wants us to do. It is hard, and not everyone is able to all the time. We don't always want to help the guy who insults us every day. It is hard not to resent the girl who made a mess of her life and now needs help. And it is especially hard in our social media driven world not to expect lots of likes and shares of the selfies we take while doing good works. The message is clear and simple, but not easy. We can't do it all the time. It is the effort that counts.

Dine with Nine Sign Ups!

Dine with Nine is a group of people, both singles and couples, who gather together for Fellowship and Fun! The group decides where and when to meet. Think about joining the fun! Join as an alternate; maybe you can only attend one dinner or if the date worked for you would like to join. Maybe you can't host a dinner, still join there are others who can host or a restaurant may be a fun option. Sign-ups continue on March 5th. Please see Diane Sheibley, Christine Hoyt or leave your information with the church office. – Growth

Women's Guild & Fellowship

Come Join Us!

Thank you to all who contributed to our drive for the Animal Protection Center of SE MA. We collected so much more than we ever imagined, and the personal at the center were overwhelmed with your generosity!

Our next collection will be for the Church World Service bucket kits. Following a disaster, these buckets are used for clean up. Though this is a WG&F project, we invite anyone to join us in collecting these items. For each bucket, we are collecting 5 gal. bucket with re-sealable lid, 5 scouring pads, 7 sponges, 1 scrub brush, 18 reusable cleaning towels (like Easy Wipes), 50-78 oz box of dry laundry detergent, 12 oz bottle of concentrated liquid cleaner like Lysol, 24-28 oz bottle of liquid disinfectant dish soap like Dawn, pkg of 48-50 clothespins, 2 50 ft or 1,100 ft clothesline, dust masks, Latex gloves, 24-28 bag roll of heavy duty 30-45 gallon trash bags, 6-9 oz bottle of insect repellent, not aerosol. We realize that this is a very long list, but if everyone could contribute just one or two items, we could fill a lot of buckets. A collection box will be in the front entryway for this collection.

Our meeting this month falls on Ash Wednesday, so members who wish, may attend the Ash Wednesday Service. Following the service, Guild members will serve refreshments to all in attendance. Prior to the service, we will have a brief business meeting where we will finalize our plans for our Annual Spring Rummage Sale and Soups on Luncheon, which will take place on April 1. Members will be in charge of the Sunday morning coffee hour for the month of March.

Coming in April, Barbara Morey with a travelogue of her trip to Jerusalem. All women of the congregation are invited to join us.

IT'S THE 'SPRING FLING' RUMMAGE SALE!

It's coming – the spring rummage sale will be held Saturday, April 1, 2017.

Hours are 9 AM to 1 PM.

Hours for bringing your donations to the church starting Monday, March 27 are:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday: regular church office hours - 9 AM to 1 PM

Thursday; 9 AM to 1 PM and 5 PM to 7 PM

Friday 9 AM to 2 PM

As always we will have clothing for all members of the family, including shoes, belts and hats. Also featured: house wares, glassware, jewelry, toys/games, paperback books, linens, baked goods and the 50/50 raffle. In other words, something for everyone! And yes, we will have our wonderful "Soup's On" luncheon Saturday from 11 AM to 1 PM. Bag sale is noon to 1:00.

In addition to members of the Guild, volunteers are needed to help pull this off successfully. We encourage and welcome all members of the congregation, including the youth, to donate a few hours of their time. Especially needed is help with cleanup, starting at 1:00 on Saturday. Please call Marie or Bette (numbers listed below) to offer your help.

We have arranged to have all the left over clothing picked up by a Brockton church to be distributed to the homeless; and the Epilepsy Foundation of NE will pick up all other items. This is a tremendous help as we will not have to lug things off to the Salvation Army any longer.

HOWEVER, we still have a problem with rubbish disposal. If everyone would be willing to take one or two bags of trash home at the end of the sale, it will help keep disposal costs down.

REMINDERS: the book table can only accept paperback books and children's books (no text books, encyclopedias, how-to manuals); and only small furniture items such as footstools, small occasional tables, mirrors, etc.

Hope to see you there!

From the Board of Outreach

It has been a busy season for CSCC Outreach. From providing people with food from our food pantry, through providing food and warm clothing to help fend off the cold weather, through providing nursing care to the homeless, and of course in partnership with Heifer Foundation providing farm animals and assistance to the needy around the world, our CSCC community has had a busy winter so far. However, we need to take a moment to consider perhaps the most critical mission of all.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 teaches us:

“Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor. For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not another to lift him up. Furthermore, if two lie down together they keep warm, but how can one be warm alone? And if one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not quickly torn apart.”

Each day, all of us have the opportunity to be a second person in the life of someone who, without you, may be standing alone. It is clear that people need food, and warm clothing. But above all, people need to know that someone cares about them. Many of us are blessed to have family and friends to comfort and support us when we are in tough times. However the reality is that there are many in our community who are alone and facing tough times. Some are facing financial challenges. Others are battling serious addictions. There are still others who feel lost because they are faced with addictions within their own families. We hear of seniors who are living alone. And we often encounter a neighbor or co-worker who is facing a serious illness. Can you imagine what it would be like facing these or other issues and believing that nobody cares?

Galatians 6:2

“Bear one another’s burdens, and thereby fulfill the law of Christ.”

Each of us have been provided with the gifts to deliver something very special to one another. As Christians, we must look out for people who are in need of encouragement and support. We are obligated to provide for those needs. And all it requires is a caring soul, and perhaps a few minutes to listen to someone who is facing tough time. Let someone know you care about them today.

God Bless You

CSCC Outreach Committee

From the Board of Stewardship

“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me. – Matthew 25: 35-36

These passages from the Gospel of Matthew certainly resonate through our Mission Statement and the various programs we provide at Central Square Congregational Church. So, no surprise that your Board of Stewardship team is building the 2017 Stewardship Campaign around Matthew 25 this year.

The season of Easter is fast approaching, the recent weather has brought the feel of spring with it, AND last week we welcomed over a dozen new members to our Congregation...WOW! Can't you feel the energy and excitement being generated in the Church! This has the potential to be a banner year for CSCC.

As you know this church supports many programs of ministry to provide assistance to the people in need in our wider community. It's what we do here, right? Of course it is. However, I need to ask all of you...are we satisfied with what we are doing now. Could we be doing a better job at those programs? Could we accommodate other programs to better the lives of the less fortunate? Of course we could...but can we? I can't answer that last question. We all collectively must answer that question.

Beginning Sunday, April 2 and continuing until Stewardship Sunday, April 30, your Stewardship team will be speaking to the Congregation about all great things we are doing, and could be doing, here at CSCC. We will also encourage all of you to consider how your financial gifting is critical to the success of these mission oriented programs as well as the operation and maintenance of this beautiful old icon church. If you are tithing today can you give a little more? If you have been unable provide financial support in the past can you give something this year? Again, I can't answer that question. All I can ask that is each of you begin now to discern and pray and let the Spirit guide you.

Blessings to you all.

Board of Stewardship

Heifer

As you know, we are planning to visit the Heifer farm in Rutland, Ma. On Saturday, May 6th. There is still plenty of time for you and your family to sign up and join us! At that time, we are planning to present Heifer with the check from our fund raising effort. Here is a breakdown of what our gift will purchase for Heifer: Pre-K & Kindergarten raised $ 43.28 or 2 flocks of chicks; Grades 1, 2, & 3 raised $130.46 or 1 flock of Hope & a Hope Basket; Grades 4 & 5 raised $182.36 or 1 Llama & 1 flock of chicks; Grades 6, 7, & 8 raised $302.27 or 1 Llama, 1 sheep, & a beehive; Grades 9-12 raised $300.00 or 3 schools of fish with the help of the congregation Faith, Hope, & Charity raised $556.00 or 1 Heifer plus a share. Each class raised more than enough money, so in addition we are sending another Hope Basket and a Beehive! Our grand total this year is $1556.37. Thank you everyone for supporting the Living Gift Market, the cow deliveries and the children's banks. Well done!

Sunday School

During Lent, the children and youth will once again have an opportunity to participate in the Rotation model of teaching. The theme is titled "Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday", and is from the perspective of the Book of Luke. The teachers and Sunday school Superintendent are presently deciding on the workshops we will choose to experience. This particular program is very exciting lending to interesting ways of exploring Holy week. We will spend three weeks exploring and presenting the lessons and then work with the children for two weeks planning our Palm Sunday program. It is important the children from grades pre-school to grade 8 attend all the classes. All grade levels that have Bibles will need to bring them each Sunday as they will reference them frequently. Thank you for all your help and support.

Upcoming CE Events

March 5th at 12:45 pm - Join us for a viewing of the movie The Shack based on the New York Times best selling novel at Patriot Place, 24 Patriot Pl, Foxborough, MA. Join us at Tavolino's after to discuss the film.

May 6th a trip to Heifer Farm in nearby Rutland, MA! We will be presenting our hard-earned donation to Heifer International. Join us for a 2.5 hour tour of some of the global villages, learn about the various areas the Heifer International helps. Our tour has a focus on animal connections and has several hands on experiences. All ages and friends are welcome! $10 per person for ages 4+. Bring a bagged lunch and enjoy a picnic with us! Tour starts at 10AM. You can sign up through the church office (508) 697-6016, or by contacting Lisa Masiello at lsmasiello@gmail.com.

May19th - May20th - Our First Annual men's retreat! Join the men at YMCA Camp Burgess in Sandwich, MA for an overnight stay. activities include campfire, boating, archery, climbing tower and zip line. $120/person includes all the activities, breakfast and lunch on Saturday and overnight accommodations in cabins. ## Updates from Cabinet

Review of meeting held on February 15, 2017

- * 15 new members will be joining CSCC on February 19!
- * Treasurer Larry Brown reported that we are at 60% of expected income for the year and 66% for expenditures, on track for this point in the fiscal year (7/1-6/30)
- * Beth Basler has accepted the appointment by Cabinet to the Board of Deacons.
- * Trustees are talking to Mass Save regarding replacing lights and light fixtures in the Fellowship Hall and the kitchen. They are also reviewing the possibilities and needs of repairs to the front of the church.
- * A housing allowance was approved for Rev. Beth, as she has informed us that it is her intention to move out of the parsonage later this year.
- * Important upcoming dates on the Christian Ed calendar include March 5, movie outing to see "The Shack"; May 6, visit to Heifer farm in Rutland, MA; May 19, men's retreat. CE is also working on a calendar in the fellowship hall for all church-related events.
- * The choir is holding a music retreat this Saturday, at the church
- * Growth Committee is working with the town Little League to provide a sponsor banner on behalf of the church for this coming baseball season; Dine with 9 will be starting up again soon; work is continuing on signing up more greeters.
- * The Women's Guild recently hosted an auction and raised money for their Angel Fund; they are delivering all of their donations to the animal shelter soon; March is the month for Women's Guild to host coffee hour; John Sharland thanked the Women's Guild for their $200 donation to the operating fund.
- * Mission youth requested permission to hold a 50/50 raffle and a pick-a-prize raffle during their Mission Supper. It was approved.
- * it was noted that the conference dues amount printed on the offering envelopes is incorrect. The correct amount is $20.30 per member.

Next Cabinet meeting is March 15th! All are welcome!

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee is beginning their work to find those of you that are called to serve on a board or committee. Some committees are seasonal; some operate all year round. Some have many small projects; some have larger ones.

There are many skills and talents needed to keep our church doing all that our church does. If you think you can make a contribution, however small, or however large, feel free to talk to one of this year's Nominating Committee members. They'll be able to find you the perfect niche.

This year's committee is: Deb Sorgman, Barbara Morey, Brad Barnsley, Terry Reynolds, Bill O'Neil, and Nancy Winter.

Rev. Beth Walden Stotts
Pastor

There will be a congregational meeting on Sunday, March 12, immediately following the service. The meeting has one agenda item.

Diane Sheibley, on behalf of the Cabinet, together with Gordon Brailsford, on behalf of the Board of Trustees, move that the members of Central Square Congregational Church UCC approve of the church divesting itself of the property known as the parsonage, located at 81 Union St.

As you probably know, the parsonage requires much care and maintenance, as it is not a new building. And as much as we love the character and history that it represents for us as a church, Reverend Beth has expressed her intention to move out of the residence with her new husband and son by the beginning of summer.

After consideration of the options that her departure offers, it is the consensus of both the Trustees and the Cabinet that it is in the best interest of Central Square Congregational Church to sell the property, and get out from under the maintenance responsibilities and cost of owning it.

Please join us for a meeting to consider the motion noted above on March 12.

If you have questions about the issue prior to the meeting, please feel free to contact Diane Sheibley at dianesheibley@gmail.com, or 508-207-2524.
