Steeple Sounds

From The Desk of Rev. Beth

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" And they answered him, "John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets." He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah."

-Mark 8:27-29

As many of you know, I got married back in October. And with that, I changed my name. Yesterday in the mail we received the court documents that my son's name change is now official as well. All of this has me thinking about names this week. What is the function of naming? How is it important and meaningful to the individual? How does naming change or impact those in a circle of community?

Jesus, in walking with the disciples, asks them;

"Who do you say that I am?"

"Who do YOU say that I am?"

Jesus doesn't tell them he's a carpenter or a rabbi or prophet, much less the Messiah. Instead, he seeks answers from his followers. Is Jesus trying to figure out who his followers are, based on their answers? Do his followers want to name who they're following but they're scared they're wrong? Why would Jesus have them name him? What's the point in that? What's in a name?

Calling Jesus the Messiah is a heavy thing.

Names are important. Using the correct name is a validation of identity. That's probably why name-calling hurts so much. It's like you're not being seen. And we all want to be seen. Even Jesus.

And so...who do you say that Jesus is?

Peace and love to you this Eastertide,

Rev. Beth

From the Board of Outreach

This past week Ed Woronicz passed away. He used to run the Western Auto Store in the center of town and after that, it was Ed's hardware from the same location. It is now a flower shop – Bridgewater Florist. Ed was always there to help and would go out of his way for people. Thank you Ed.

Most everyone has, at some time or another, heard someone described as a person who would give you the shirt off their back. This was Ed! On the other hand, there are those described as not even willing to give you the time of day. But this outreach and those people don't exist.

Another saying that comes to mind is "If you want something done – ask a busy person." Every week I experience so many things being done by so many people at CSCC. People willing to help no matter what the task. The kindness is endless and very contagious!

I know firsthand while I was recovering from knee surgery that this is the case. It became even more clear to me with all the cards, visits, food and phone calls that I received from so many people. Thank you!

God is still speaking,

David Hanson

From Christian Education

The House on the Rock

The children will begin learning from the Spark curriculum The House on the Rock based on the parable from Matthew 7:24-28. They will spend 3 weeks on it beginning April 30th and finish on Sunday May 14th. They will be exposed to the theme through cooking, art, science, music, Bible skills and games. The weekly focus will cover such ideas as “When Jesus speaks, I listen”, “we can build our lives on God’s love”, and “when times are tough God’s love is a solid foundation”. The children enjoy exploring the Bible through these various mediums. It presents a whole different perspective for the children while making the lessons interesting and challenging. You may find your children’s classes in different locations such as the kitchen for cooking or the Fellowship Hall for Bible skills and games. We will keep you informed as to where you may meet your child following worship. If anyone would like to teach one of the themes at a particular age level please see Terry Reynolds or email her at terryr0647@hotmail.com. It is a one Sunday opportunity to teach the children whether working with pre-K & K, grades 1, 2 & 3, grades 4 & 5 or grades 6, 7 & 8. It is your choice.

May Sunday School Calendar

April 30	Sunday School – The House on the Rocks
May 7	Sunday School – The House on the Rocks
May 14	Sunday School – The House on the Rocks
May 21	Sunday School – Plan for Children’s Sunday
May 28	Multigenerational Sunday (no Sunday school - Memorial Day Weekend)
June 4	Sunday School – Practice for Children’s Sunday
June 11	Children’s Sunday

Upcoming CE Events & Information

May 6th is our trip to Heifer Farm - we still have room if you would like to attend! Our tour is at 10 AM, it is 2.5 hours long and we will be exploring the animal connections to the villages. We will be presenting the church's donation to Heifer while we are there.

We are pleased to announce that Krissy Cannizzo will be taking over as Sunday School Superintendent on a job share basis! Krissy has grown up in the church and has 10 years of Sunday School experience. We are looking for someone to assist Krissy in this role so that she can continue to teach Sunday School. Superintendent duties would include helping with registration, coordinating teacher schedules and maintaining records. The CE committee is very flexible in working with anyone who is interested.

We are also in search of teachers for next fall also on a job sharing basis. We are looking for teachers for all grade levels. If you are interested in teaching, please contact Lisa Masiello at lsmasiello@gmail.com or (508)245-4086 to be added to the list. The curriculum is pre-done and we invite you during the next few coffee hours to look at the materials that are provided to make teaching easier for you!

The Men's Retreat to Camp Burgess is CANCELLED. We will be hosting a Family Retreat this coming Fall. Stay tuned!
