Steeple Sounds

From The Desk of Rev. Beth

This month, I'd like to share with you part of a reflection written by one of my colleagues, Caela Simmons Wood.

"Last month, over 5 million people shared in a worldwide dialogue via social media centered on two words: "me, too." Hundreds of thousands of survivors of sexual harassment and assault shared their stories or simply said, "me, too" - as in, "Yes. Me, too. I have also been sexually harassed or assaulted." Activist Tarana Burke began this movement over a decade ago after discovering herself how powerful it can be for survivors of sexual violence to know they are not alone.

We know that survivors fill our pews each Sunday. We know their stories are heard and held by God. We must also remember that our communities of faith are not places that are exempt from the perpetration of sexual violence. "Churches, too" are places where people of all genders and ages are sexually harassed and assaulted. Perhaps this comes as a surprise to you or perhaps you are a person who has experienced unwanted comments or touch in a church setting. I can tell you that, as a clergywoman, I have heard too many stories from my clergy sisters who have been sexually assaulted or harassed at work. I have also held space for church members who have been abused by pastors or other church members. The Church is, sadly, not always safe for everyone.

There are things we can all continue to do to help ensure our particular congregation is a place where people are respected and honored as full and complete human beings, created in God's image. We can make ourselves particularly aware of power differentials. We can watch one another's body language and listen to each other's words when spending time together. We can be good listeners, providing a supportive ear when others might need to share that they have experienced abuse here or elsewhere."

We can also exercise special care with children and young people, making sure we do everything possible to help them learn that they are in charge of their bodies. I always love it when I hear a child say, "I don't want a hug right now" because I know this means someone has helped them learn that consent matters. I love when a teacher says to the children at the end of the class, "Have a great day! Would you like to share a hug, handshake, or high five?" Did you know our church has a policy for those who work with our children and youth? An adult should not be alone with any child and all adults have completed a background check. (You can learn more about our policies by speaking with a member of CE or our Superintendent of the Sunday School.)

I am thankful for all the ways I have seen the people of this congregation treat one another with dignity and respect. I hope you also know that if you ever feel uneasy about something that you or someone else experiences in our congregation, you should come and speak to me or another trusted congregational leader.

Let's continue to work together to ensure that CSCC is a place where all people feel safe in their own bodies and know they are respected as those made in God's image.

In Christ,
Rev. Beth

From the Board of Deacons

This year, the Board of Deacons is exploring a new model of Parish Care. Each member of the congregation will have an assigned Deacon that they can call or email if they need support, a meal, a prayer, or a visit. Each Deacon is listed below with their contact information and the members they serve:

From the Board of Stewardship

The Stewardship Committee will be hosting a breakfast meeting on Nov 5th at 9:00 am to present a brief history on the Congregational church in New England. The Stewardship Committee feel that since we ask the congregation to pledge and provide support to the church, it makes sense that some of you may not know the origins of the church and what the polity of our denomination is. We are hopeful that this meeting will be informative, and perhaps lead to additional breakfast meetings to expand on any ideas or questions the congregation has. Please grab some breakfast and join us in a separate area of the Fellowship Hall!

From the Board of Trustees

Tropical Storm Jose, a four day event here in New England gusts to 40 mph, brought down the upper north side of our majestic but ancient maple tree on the church lawn. Part of it fell onto town property (the side walk), so the town forestry department cut it up into large pieces and left it on the lawn. Our thanks to Bruce Maclay and David Hanson for hauling the material away after it was further cut up.

The tree now needs the help of a registered arborist to advise us on it's ongoing health and how to repair the damage. Does anyone know such a person?

News from Outreach

There are many lessons adults can learn from kids. Something I've noticed lately is that kids know reaching out to others can be very easy. When one student offers another a pencil, help on a math problem, or a seat at the lunch table, these simple acts can make a huge difference to the recipient. Kids offer these kindnesses without even thinking. My students challenge me be on the lookout for small daily ways to provide help or just make someone's day better, whether it is by holding a door, buying someone a cup of coffee, sending someone that hilarious Facebook post, or just taking the time to listen.

The Living Nativity is Coming to Christmas on the Common! VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

This year, we're holding our annual Living Nativity during the Bridgewater Christmas on the Common festival on December 3rd, right after church!

There will be vendors set up all over Central Square, including inside our very own Fellowship Hall, which means we have a huge audience coming and going that afternoon. This is a great opportunity for our church to connect with the community, and we need your help!

ALL AGES WELCOME! We need volunteers to dress up in costumes to help us create the nativity scene, volunteers to help those getting in and out of costumes, and volunteers to help us hand out church flyers and candy canes.

We need plenty of volunteers each hour between 12:00 - 3:00 so we can take turns being out in the cold if it's chilly that day!

Please help us plan by signing up for a time you can help! (direct link: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c054daeae2aa7f94-living>)
Contact Sara Terpeny (saraterp@gmail.com) with any questions!

Women's Guild & Fellowship

Come Join Us!

The Women's Guild and Fellowship will hold its next meeting on November 1st at 6:30 in the Fellowship Hall. We are pleased to announce that Liisa Budge-Johnson will be our guest speaker. Liisa is from the Plymouth County Sheriff's Department and is a very entertaining and informative speaker. Her topic will be "The Elephant Sanctuary".

Some of the agenda items for the meeting include a wrap up of the very successful Fall Rummage Sale, information about the Christmas boxes for our troops overseas, and Father Bills Main Spring Home.

Coming in December - Our annual Christmas Communion Service with Rev. Beth!

All women are welcome. Come check us out!

Christmas Boxes for Our Troops

The Women's Guild and Fellowship is once again collecting items for our troops who are stationed overseas at Christmas. If you would like to contribute to this project, there will be a box in the entry hall where donations will be collected. Below is a list of the most requested items. Also, if you would like to send along a holiday greeting, you may drop those off in the box as well. Thoughts and prayers and notes from home are very appreciated all year long, but most especially during the holidays.

Candy/gum, Shampoo, Deodorant, Hand cream, Tooth brushes and paste, Kleenex packets, Sport items, Laundry pods, Beef Jerky, T-shirts (L-XL), Wash cloths, Mouth Wash, Handi wipes, Cocoa, Batteries (AA-AAA), Pillow cases, Coffee creamers/flavors, Tea, Oatmeal packets, Hand Sanitizer, Dental Floss (not the string kind), Pens/stickies/markers, Dryer Sheets (good as air fresheners), AYR nasal spray, Ramen Noodles, Band-aids (children's fun type), Hats (blue/black) (wear under helmets), Lip Balm, Eye glass cleaner, Hand/Foot Warmers, Health Bars, Coffee (regular) and K-cups (regular).

Women's Guild & Fellowship Rummage Sale & Soup's On Luncheon

The Fall Rummage Sale & Soup's On Luncheon was a big success! The Women's Guild & Fellowship combined hard work and fellowship and raised just under $2500, which allows us to continue with our community outreach. But we did not do it alone. Several people helped us along the way. Thanks to all of you who donated your rummage. Without rummage there would have been no sale. Thank you to the gentlemen who helped us set up the tables on Tuesday evening and those who helped us take them down Saturday afternoon. Thank you to the Mission Youth and High School Community Service Volunteers, and the friends and family of members, who worked side by side with our members on Saturday. Thanks to Ellen, our church's Administrative Assistant, who helped us with some of our administrative details. And a special thank you to our interim sexton, Russ Barr, who helped us set up on Tuesday and was present all day Saturday, along with his son Eddie, during the sale and cleanup. Russ was still cleaning floors and putting tables in place long after we had finished for the day. Great job Russ. Thanks again to all for sharing your time, talents, and rummage. And don't forget to mark your calendars for our Spring Sale on April 28, 2018!

From the Minister of Music

The past month has been a busy one for the music programs at our church. Our adult choir had a very successful retreat, at which we rehearsed a wide variety of music and had a delicious potluck lunch. Our children's choir has performed twice so far this year, once alone and once as part of our adult choir anthem. We are looking forward to a beautiful Reformation Sunday service full of music!

One highlight of this month was our trip to the MACUCC's Super Saturday, at which the participants were able to attend different workshops to discuss various topics related to our church. I attended a morning workshop on making music, which emphasized the importance of making music inclusive, improvisatory, and uplifting. Then I attended an afternoon workshop on planning services that are intimate, invitational, purposeful, and embodied. I am including a picture of our notes from that workshop.

Our "Score Club" will take place after our service on Sunday, November 12th. The office will be distributing copies of the score to those who are interested in participating, so please let us know! You are welcome to join us, whether or not you have experience studying music!

News from Christian Education

The Lagom Life

Lagom (pronounced law-ghum) life. It is the concept of living a balanced, harmonious, sufficient and beautiful life with consideration for others. It is about doing things simply and practically. I have begun reading The Lagom Life: A Swedish Way of Living by Elisabeth Carlsson. It explains that Lagom generates contentedness, having enough and not feeling deprived. It's a way of life often found in Scandinavian families believing that folks should strive for the right amount of stuff and being happy with what you have. This content lifestyle is also found throughout the bible. 1st Timothy 6: 7-8, "For we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content."

The Lagom Life: A Swedish Way of Living also suggests that one of "the main attributes of a meaningful life is connecting and contributing to something other than yourself. It could be your family, your work, volunteering in the community, following outdoor pursuits, or religion." And for me, it's my connection to Central Square Congregational Church.

I love the concept of the Lagom life. Regardless of my hectic schedule and responsibilities this month, I will remind myself to be mindful of the small things that can bring joy and balance to my life. I will remind myself that a sufficient and harmonious life is about finding meaningfulness in all of God's gifts already in our lives. I encourage everyone to learn about the Lagom life too!

CSCC Annual Fair
Friday, Nov 10, 6:30pm-8:30pm Saturday,
Nov 11, 9:00am-2:00pm
Turkey supper: 5pm, 6:30pm, or takeout

MARK YOUR CALENDARS, AND TELL YOUR FRIENDS!

All of your favorites will be there: Pie! (Friday evening pie & coffee) * The cookie walk (how many different cookies can you fit in your tin?) and other baked goods * Homemade candy and goodies * Hand-made gift items * Christmas items * Jewelry * Attic treasures rummage * Silent auction gift baskets * Beth Basler's amazing luncheon soups and meatballs * WALKING TACOS! * Hanson Farm harvest table * Turkey supper, to eat in or take out.

“How can I help?” If you'd like to lend a hand, bake some cookies, cook a turkey, make an apple crisp, serve some pie, or if you just have questions, feel free to contact any of our fair chairs. If everybody did just one thing, BOY!, would it be a fair to remember. And we thank you in advance for your time and talent.

Another important way you can help: bring your friends! And post it on Facebook! Invite your neighbors! Tell them about the food items and they won't be able to resist... The cookie walk? Chef Basler's fabulous soups? A turkey supper with generous portions? Walking tacos???

Please also note: we encourage anyone coming to the fair to bring one nonperishable food item to contribute to the Bridgewater Food Pantry if they are able. Spread the word!

Contact one of the Fair Chairs with questions:

Deb Rucker, 508-279-0772, motherucker40@gmail.com

Diane Sheibley, 508-697-7262, diane@sheibley.net

We'll be taking turkey supper reservations during coffee hours – look for us, email Diane Sheibley at diane@sheibley.net, or contact the church office at 508-697-6016. Seating is limited, so make your reservations sooner rather than later. Reservations required for eat-in or takeout.

Remember... November 10 & 11! See you there!

And... TELL YOUR FRIENDS!

RESERVATIONS for the Turkey Suppers on Saturday, November 11 are now being accepted!
Home cooked turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, veggie, cranberry sauce, apple crisp, and a beverage. YUM!

Email office@cscucc.com or call during office hours (508-697-6016) with the following information to reserve your spot now:

- * Name
- * Number in your party
- * choice of seating (5pm or 6:30pm) or takeout (pickup between 5:30-6)
- * phone number

Space is limited so be sure to reserve your spot early!

Prices: Adult=$12; Senior/Student=$8; Child under 12=$6; Family (up to two adults and the children that live with them)=$35

ATTENTION: BR STUDENTS - COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY!
FAIR AT CENTRAL SQUARE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
LOOKING FOR STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11 (9AM-9PM)
4-HOUR OR MORE BLOCKS OF TIME AVAILABLE
UP TO 12 HOURS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE TIME POSSIBLE

The fair at Central Square Congregational Church is held once a year, in November, and is a fundraiser for our operating fund. Our operating fund helps to pay expenses such as heat, electricity, and staff to keep the building open. Our building is home to girl scouts, boy scouts, twelve-step support groups, community music groups, the Bridgewater Food Pantry, and more. The event itself is not at all religious in nature. Students would be helping to prep food for our lunch and/or turkey supper, serve food at lunch and/or supper, help set up tables and chairs, help clean up, and other needed services during the fair.

You may work all 12 hours (lunch and dinner will be provided), or any of the following shifts: 9-1, 11-3, 4-9

Contact Diane Sheibley at diane@sheibley.net or 508-207-2524 (call or text)

Church Fair Needs

Bakers Needed!

Our church Fair is fast approaching on November 10th and 11th! We are in need of baked goods. Please consider making a pie, cookies or bread. We need a variety of pies and cookies for pie night and the cookie walk. All baked goods are welcome! Please label all baked goods and drop them at the church anytime on Friday November 10th before 6:30pm. (Cookies should be two dozen or more in a Ziploc bag) Please contact Darlene Brown at 508-822-9743 or darlingsb@verizon.net and let her know what you can make. We need your help to make the fair a success, and thank you in advance for any and all help!

Candy Needed!

The Fair is always an exciting time in the life of our church. Again this year we will be having The Candy Table with all its tempting treats, both familiar and new! Please be sure to stop by, see our amazing display of candy, have a sample and purchase some delectable delights! Because the ingredients necessary for our confections are costly, we rely on all of you to assist us in our endeavor: cash donations help us the most and we never turn down offers of fudge or candy made by you. Please contact Debbie Golob @ 508 947-2798 or Ruthie LaBonte @ 508 697-7122 to let us know if you will be able to help. Anyone with leftover Halloween candy may bring it to our table on Friday, November 10th or Saturday, November 11th. We greatly appreciate any and all assistance. Thank you so much! Debbie and Ruthie

Attic Treasures!

The Church Fair is coming! We need donations for the Attic Treasures Table. We are currently seeking: dishes, pots and pans, candles, toys (in good condition), Thanksgiving & Christmas items, note paper. We will take Children's clothes – especially teens. Someone will be upstairs on Thursday, November 9th at 6:00 PM where the children have Sunday School to accept donations. Please no electronics! (Like computers or TVs). If anyone wants to assist at the table during the Fair, please call Bev Mitchell at 508-697-2949. Thank You!

Gift Baskets Needed!

The annual fair is coming up, and we are in urgent need of gift baskets, gift cards, and items for the silent auction/raffle. In the past, we have often asked each board and committee to contribute a basket. This year, we want to get away from imposing the financial burden on these people who already give so much of their time, talent, and treasure, but we would love it if the members of the boards and committees, as well as all church members, would approach the local stores, services, and repairmen that they have contact with to make a donation. If everybody got one donation – large or small – imagine what our basket table would look like! But just to clarify, if a board or committee would LIKE to organize a basket, of either purchased items, or perhaps smaller donated items or handmade (or home cooked) items, we would welcome that with open arms as well. As you know, the fair is one of our biggest fundraisers of the year, and is a crucial part of our revenue budget, helping us to pay for our basic operating expenses and personnel, so that we can continue to host events and gatherings of our own, as well as keep making our physical property an integral part of our community outreach. Thanks for your help. Feel free to contact us with any questions. A donation letter and item donation form are located on the church Facebook page if you need more info.
