The monthly newsletter of Central Square Congregational Church, UCC
July 2026

We are a Christian community of people who are reaching out to our neighbors, at home and abroad, sharing our faith and our resources.

From the Desk of Rev. Andrew

Rev. Andrew Heintz, Summer Worship Leader

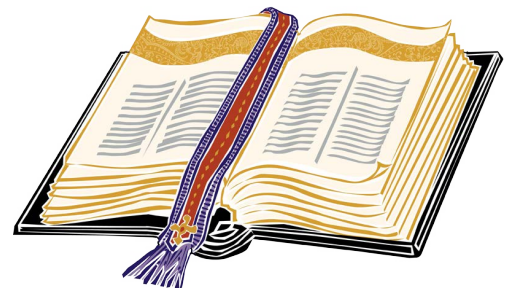

Message Series: Our Diverse Heritage

Sometimes it's easy to read the Bible as a book that sounds like it's all written by the same author. Whichever page you open to, you wouldn't be surprised to find sheep and shepherds, maybe some sin and righteousness, and probably Jesus teaching or doing a miracle. The words we read look the same and might not stand out as being any different from each other.

But the Bible isn't a single book: it's a whole library full of different voices. Authors argue with each other. Jesus in one book looks different from Jesus in another book. Stories are duplicated and changed. Two creation stories, two flood stories, two covenants with Abraham, two blessings of Hagar and Ishmael. And yet we hold this spiritual cacophony together as our sacred symphony.

This is our heritage: diversity. Those who collected our scriptures brought many stories, brought many names of God, brought differing viewpoints into the same collection. We are invited to learn from every voice in the scriptures and hear them as holy. Diversity isn't a new thing or a "bug in the system": it's built in as a standard feature in our scriptures.

So this summer, we'll be exploring how we can learn from the diversity of voices in the Bible. We'll read texts, and we'll also be invited to offer up our own voices into the conversation. The time of the message will be not just thinking about the scriptures, but about doing some spiritual practice together as a community of faith. Because our practice of faith is not just about one person's thoughts: it includes the meditations of all of us here.

Rev. Andrew

Rev. Andrew will once again be filling in as worship leader while Rev. Beth is on sabbatical this summer, as he did last year.

Coins for Kids Church

Don't forget to bring your spare change for the Coins for Kids Church collection! This helps to pay for Kids Church supplies and teaching materials.

We normally collect it on the first Sunday of the month, but feel free to bring it on any Sunday!

Our church building will once again be open during the Bridgewater 4th of July parade, for anyone that needs to use the restroom or get inside out of the sun. It will open at 9:30, and close up after the parade crowds have disbursed.

Thank you to all who came out and dined at the Goat City Pub (or got takeout!) in May. You raised $312 for the church!

The 2026-27 budget was passed at the annual meeting on June 14. It had several amendments to the original proposed version, all of which netted more revenue and no more expense. See pages 10-11 for minutes of the meeting, and the June Steeple Sounds for a copy of the full proposed budget.

Carol Chaffee and Terry Reynolds are leaving our church's leadership this month, after years of service in many capacities. Carol served as a Congregational Team Leader and Fair Committee Chair this last year, and Terry served as a Community Engagement Team leader. This is in addition to all of the other contributions that they make to our church family.

Thank you for your years of service, Carol and Terry.

The Bridgewater Food Pantry at Central Square Church is looking for a local resident to train as the Associate Director for the Food Pantry. Must be personable with good communication skills, have good computer skills including Microsoft Excel, and be in good physical health with the ability to lift up to 50 pound bags of food. Hours include, but are not limited to, every Thursday from 9:30am until 1:30pm; first and third Wednesday from 8:00am to noon; first Monday of each month from 5:45-7:45pm; and to be on call to assist Bridgewater residents in need on an as-needed basis and spend lots of time preparing reports for our relationship with the Greater Boston Food Bank. This is a volunteer position that offers a chance to work closely with Bridgewater residents to assist them with meeting their need for food assistance. If you are interested in exploring this opportunity please call the church office at 508-697-6016 and leave a message for me on the food pantry line.

August Book Study: Joyful Anyway by Kate Bowler

By sharing her personal experience and stories from some of our culture's preeminent historians, philosophers, and religious scholars, Bowler presents an original and inspiring understanding of joy. This is a type of joy that is different from happiness, and it does not depend on resolving the things that make life difficult. Drawing on a decade of living with serious illness and a lifetime, as a divinity professor, studying America's obsession with progress, she shows why the relentless pursuit of happiness may, in fact, keep us from experiencing true joy.

The concepts in the book will be the basis for discussion during the Picnic Table Outdoor Worship services on August 16, 23, and 30. Read the book if you're interested, but even if you don't, the topics will make for interesting and inciteful basis for conversation that all can participate in and benefit from.

Summer is Here!

Whatever you need for your summer activities, we more than likely have it at the Central Closet Thrift Shop. Whether it's more summer clothing, additional serving pieces, or games and puzzles. You might be pleasantly surprised.

We will be open on Wednesdays only from 10 to 2 for the months of July and August, and donations will also be accepted at this time. Central Closet Thrift Shop will be closed on Saturdays. For church attendees, donations may also be dropped off Sunday morning before 10am church services. As always please, clean seasonal items only. And please no more than 20 items at a time. We have very little storage space.

We thank you all for you continued support in helping us with our mission to the church.

Connie, Sandy, Jane, Lynn and Gail

The revenue from the annual CSCC Fair is slated to provide a full 25% of our fundraising budget in the 2026-27 fiscal year. $7,000 to be exact. And it is in need of a chairperson.

Last year's team did a great job, and we were truly fortunate to have them lead the event. But they are not renewing their commitment this year. There are some volunteers who participate and help coordinate different parts each year, and may again this coming year. And there have already been some individual offers to help. But one or two dedicated volunteers are needed to do the overall coordination and keep all the wheels turning. No longterm commitment is needed (after the November event date), and advice and written descriptions of responsibilities are available.

Is this your calling for this year? Contact the Property & Finance Team or the church office for more information. We need you!

Thank you to Central Square Church for making it possible for me to attend this year's Church Office Professionals Conference. We enjoyed learning about healthy boundaries and self-care with Rev. Liz Garrigan-Byerly and participated in an outreach project supporting the Cape Cod Foster Closet. Thanks to our congregations generosity, we donated clothing, blankets, and $440 to this important organization. It was a wonderful opportunity for learning, fellowship, and service.

Jenne Foronjy, CSCC Office Manager

Welcome Rev. Andrew!

Rev. Andrew Heintz will once again be filling in as worship leader while Rev. Beth is on sabbatical this summer, as he did last year. Rev. Andrew is an ordained UCC minister and serves as a full time hospice chaplain and as associate pastor at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Newton Lower Falls. Andrew is passionate about helping people meet God in prayer and worship, entering the stories of our faith with creativity and imagination. Andrew received his Master of Divinity degree from the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and his Master of Sacred Theology at Chicago Theological Seminary. Originally from Oxford, North Carolina, Andrew loves living in Providence, and he enjoys spending time in nature and playing music.

Rev. Beth will be on sabbatical June 23-August 2.

"Community is the heartbeat of humanity, pulsing with love and support."

- Our grand piano has a fresh look when not in use. Anne Chaffee's legacy lives on as a new cover for this wonderful instrument has been purchased with funds from her estate. We celebrate the ministry that our piano creates, encourages and displays. It is worthy to be dressed to the nines.
- Congratulations to Ashley (Earp) and JC Thompson, married at CSCC on May 31!
- Shoutout to Ed LeVine, Ashley Thompson's father, for some cosmetic touchup of our front walk (without even being asked)! Thank you, Ed!

Do you have an important milestone in your family you'd like to share with the CSCC community? Perhaps a retirement (yay!), a birth, a new job or house, a passing? Let us share in these important moments in the life of our community together.

Send your brief, one-line message (not more than a few words, please) to the church office at office@cscucc.com. If it's received by the 20th of the month, it'll be in the next Steeple Sounds. If it comes after, we'll save it for the next one.

What's new with you?

Did you know that CSCC has an Amazon wish list? The link to it is on the website's giving page (cscucc.org/giving). If you're doing any Amazon shopping and might be willing to periodically add an item or two from the list for the church, that would be awesome! Or perhaps you want to make a separate order and have it shipped directly to the church. That's great, too! The church office periodically reviews the item list and makes sure it reflects current needs of office supplies, coffee hour supplies, etc, so check back regularly.

Are you part of a team that is organizing an event at church? Let the church office know what you need, and it can be added to the wish list!

Thanks in advance for your generosity.
